Lower Gwynedd Accepting Applications for Interim Tax Collector

The Township is seeking applications for an Interim Tax Collector. The Interim Tax Collector will serve for the remainder of the existing term that will expire on January 4, 2022.

Applicants must have resided in Lower Gwynedd Township for a period of one year prior to August 31, 2019 and continue to reside in the Township during the term of office. Applicants should be bonded or have the ability to secure a bond for the length of the term and must attend training and complete the required testing for municipal tax collectors. Applicants must also have available office space or a designated location for the collection of taxes.

Please submit a letter of interest and resume to Craig McAnally, Township Manager, P.O. Box 625, Spring House, PA 19477 or e-mail cmcanally@lowergwynedd.org no later than Tuesday, September 15, 2020.

Ambler Borough Water Main Breaks effects southwest portion of Lower Gwynedd Township

On Tuesday Night, September 8, 2020 water service was interrupted to residents in Lower Gwynedd Township due to a water main break at Norma and Marion Roads. While Ambler Borough Water Department restored the line four additional breaks occurred causing outages for some residents until Thursday, September 10, 2020. Please note that should any issues arise or further service be interrupted you can call Ambler Borough Water Department at 215-646-1000.
