Congratulations Class of 2020

The Township offers best wishes to all the students of the Class of 2020. The coronavirus has disrupted graduation ceremonies but it cannot take away from the many accomplishments of students throughout the Township and the region. We know you will go on to great things.

The Wissahickon High School Class of 2020 will mark graduation with a car parade beginning at noon on Thursday, June 4. Please note the parade route and come out and congratulate them on their accomplishments.

Montgomery County Expected To Go To Yellow Reopening Phase Next Week

Montgomery County and other counties in southeastern Pennsylvania are expected to move to the state's yellow reopening phase on June 5, Governor Wolf said last week.
